Liturgy of the Word

From the book of Exodus

(Ex 17:8-13)

In those days, Amalek came and waged war against Israel. Moses, therefore, said to Joshua, "Pick out certain men, and tomorrow go out and engage Amalek in battle. I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand." So Joshua did as Moses told him: he engaged Amalek in battle after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill with Aaron and Hur. As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight. Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so they put a rock in place for him to sit on. Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other, so that his hands remained steady till sunset. And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 121

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

From the second letter to Timothy

(2 Tm 3:14-4:2)

Beloved: Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: The word of God is living and effective, discerning reflections and thoughts of the heart.

From the Gospel according to Luke

(Lk 18:1-8)

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'" The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We have Coffee and Donuts TODAY
Following the 8am & 10am Mass

Fr. Bill's Musings

I love St. Peter Claver, his example and service to those most in need. St. Peter Claver's care, kindness and devoted work ministering to enslaved Africans led him to be chosen as the patron saint of African Americans. I am associated with the Knights of Peter Claver, which is why at every mass I ask for both St. Jerome's and St. Peter Claver's prayers for our parish community.

I am being honored at the 16th Annual St. Peter Claver Awards Program on Saturday, Nov. 22nd at an 11am Brunch at the Proud Bird. Ticket are $70 each. Proceeds go to supporting African American vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Please be with me in supporting these vocations.

All Saint's Day, a Holy Day, lands on Saturday this year. Attending mass is encouraged, but mass attendance is NOT required when this celebration falls on a Saturday or Monday.

Let us continue to pray with and for each other. Have a blessed month of the Holy Rosary.

We welcome the new member of God's Family!
Congratulations to the family of

Nathan Zarate

Elijah Zarate

baptized at St. Jerome today.

Let us pray for their family.

Let us set a good example for them.

SAFEGUARD THE CHILDREN

Fall is a good time to refresh internet safety rules with the children in your care. For example, it is helpful to establish clear guidelines like what types of sites children can visit, apps they can download, and when they can have access to electronics. Families can also consider "blackout" periods that require disconnection – possibly during dinner and leading up to bedtime. Find resources for keeping children and teens safe online and more internet safety tips at Netsmartz \(https://www.missingkids.org/netsmartz\).
