Palm Sunday Liturgy of the Word

From the Gospel according to Luke (Lk 19:28-40)

Jesus proceeded on his journey up to Jerusalem. As he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany at the place called the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples. He said, "Go into the village opposite you, and as you enter it you will find a colt tethered on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. And if anyone should ask you, 'Why are you untying it?' you will answer, 'The Master has need of it.'" So those who had been sent went off and found everything just as he had told them. And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying this colt?" They answered, "The Master has need of it." So they brought it to Jesus, threw their cloaks over the colt, and helped Jesus to mount. As he rode along, the people were spreading their cloaks on the road; and now as he was approaching the slope of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of his disciples began to praise God aloud with joy for all the mighty deeds they had seen. They proclaimed: "Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest." Some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." He said in reply, "I tell you, if they keep silent, the stones will cry out!"

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

From the book of prophet Isaiah (Is 50:4-7)

The Lord GOD has given me a well-trained tongue, that I might know how to speak to the weary a word that will rouse them. Morning after morning he opens my ear that I may hear; and I have not rebelled, have not turned back. I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting. The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps. 22

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

From the letter to the Philippians (Phil 2:6-11)

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Passion of our Lord according to Luke (Lk 23:1-49)

The elders of the people, chief priests and scribes, arose and brought Jesus before Pilate. They brought charges against him, saying, "We found this man misleading our people; he opposes the payment of taxes to Caesar and maintains that he is the Christ, a king." Pilate asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He said to him in reply, "You say so." Pilate then addressed the chief priests and the crowds, "I find this man not guilty." But they were adamant and said, "He is inciting the people with his teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to here."

On hearing this Pilate asked if the man was a Galilean; and upon learning that he was under Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod who was in Jerusalem at that time. Herod was very glad to see Jesus; he had been wanting to see him for a long time, for he had heard about him and had been hoping to see him perform some sign. He questioned him at length, but he gave him no answer. The chief priests and scribes, meanwhile, stood by accusing him harshly. Herod and his soldiers treated him contemptuously and mocked him, and after clothing him in resplendent garb, he sent him back to Pilate. Herod and Pilate became friends that very day, even though they had been enemies formerly.

Pilate then summoned the chief priests, the rulers, and the people and said to them, "You brought this man to me and accused him of inciting the people to revolt. I have conducted my investigation in your presence and have not found this man guilty of the charges you have brought against him, nor did Herod, for he sent him back to us. So no capital crime has been committed by him. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him."

But all together they shouted out, "Away with this man! Release Barabbas to us." (Now Barabbas had been imprisoned for a rebellion that had taken place in the city and for murder.) Again Pilate addressed them, still wishing to release Jesus, but they continued their shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

Pilate addressed them a third time, "What evil has this man done? I found him guilty of no capital crime. Therefore I shall have him flogged and then release him." With loud shouts, however, they persisted in calling for his crucifixion, and their voices prevailed. The verdict of Pilate was that their demand should be granted. So he released the man who had been imprisoned for rebellion and murder, for whom they asked, and he handed Jesus over to them to deal with as they wished.

As they led him away they took hold of a certain Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country; and after laying the cross on him, they made him carry it behind Jesus. A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.' At that time people will say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?"

Now two others, both criminals, were led away with him to be executed. When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." They divided his garments by casting lots.

The people stood by and watched; the rulers, meanwhile, sneered at him and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews."

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last.

Here all kneel and pause for a short time.

The centurion who witnessed what had happened glorified God and said, "This man was innocent beyond doubt." When all the people who had gathered for this spectacle saw what had happened, they returned home beating their breasts; but all his acquaintances stood at a distance, including the women who had followed him from Galilee and saw these events.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Gifts 1: BEHOLD THE CROSS by Bob Hurd

1, 5: Behold the cross on which was hung life's very Lord, God's only Son; Mary's own babe, so cold and so still, helpless before her on Calvary hill.

2: Nails in his hands, nails in his feet, a traitor kiss upon his cheek; and his pierced heart, now broken in two, love crucified for me and for you.

3: Eyes that won't see, ears that won't hear, lips that deny the friend once so dear; slowly he turns and captures your eyes, then passes on to Calvary to die.

4: Behold the cross of Christ in our midst: all those who bear his wounds in their flesh. Suffering for crimes of mercy and peace, signs of the kingdom on Calvary street.

Gifts 2: BEHOLD THE WOOD by Dan Schutte

Behold, behold the wood of the cross on which is hung our salvation. O come let us adore.

1: Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die, it shall remain but a single grain and not give life.

2: And when my hour of glory comes as all was meant to be, you shall see me lifted up upon a tree.

3: For there can be no greater love shown upon this land than in the one who came to die that we might live.

4: My Father, if it be your plan, this cup might pass me by; yet let it happen as you will if I must die.

Com.: LEAD US TO THE CROSS by C. Muglia

1: For forty days and forty nights we fast and pray, we sacrifice. We pray, O God, that you will make us holy. From the snare of sin and the grip of vice we turn away to renew our lives. We come back to you, we seek your love and mercy.

You alone, you are all we need.

You alone, are every thing.

Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross.

Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross.

2: In solitude we walk with you, in your love and in your truth. We must be the hands and feet of you, Lord. Help us turn to the lost and poor, to the naked and the forgotten, Lord, that we might bring your compassion and your mercy.

Bridge: O God, renew our hearts and minds; remove the blindness from our eyes. And when we falter and we fail, lead us back to you again. Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross. Lead us to the cross.

Reflection: REVELATION SONG by J. L. Riddle

1: Worthy is the Lamb who was slain; Holy, holy is He; Sing a new song to Him who sits on heaven's mercy seat.

Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty.
Who was and is and is to come;
With all creation I sing
Praise to the King of kings;
You are my everything
And I will adore you.

2: Clothes in rainbows of living color, flashes of lighting, rolls of thunder; Blessing and honor, strength and glory and power be to You the only wise king.

Sending: In These Days Of Lenten Journey

by R. Manalo

In these days of Lenten journey
We have seen and we have heard
The call to sow justice
In the lives of those we serve.

4. We call on the Spirit of Justice and pray for the righteousness' sake. We will sing for the freedom of all the oppressed; we will loosen the bonds of distress.

APRIL'S WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES

Creige & Imee Wennstrom 45 yrs

Jose & Lillian Arias 38 YEARS

Aki & Cathy Edgerton 11 YEARS

May God bless them as they celebrate their anniversary!

St. Vincent de Paul Bundle Sunday

The St. Vincent de Paul truck will be in the School parking lot on Sunday, April 27th from 8am to 1:30pm.

Please bring any useable items that will help in their efforts to assist needy individuals: clothing, shoes, linens, books, household goods, and small appliances.

Call 323 224-6280 to schedule a free pickup at your home for the larger items. Thank You!

For assistance call us at 310-908-9204

TODAY, our 6th grade St. Jerome School's children and their parents will be selling Beignets and Coffee following the 8am & 10am Mass. Your support is appreciated.

On GOOD FRIDAY those 14 to 59 years of age are required, other than for reasons of health, to both fast and abstain.

Fr. Bill's Musings

We have had 46 first confessions this year. This is one more than last year. Please pray for our children who are preparing for their First Communions in May.

Don't forget to pray for our candidates and catechumens who are preparing for their Easter Vigil Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Communion.

Our St. Jerome School's enrollment is now at 199. Those who recall when the sisters administered the school pre-2010 may recall our reaching 300. 199 students is the most we have had since 2014. I am grateful for your continued generous support of our children and their families.

Like Thomas I will believe when I can touch and see, but I have been promised that we will have the refurbished kneelers installed before Holy Thursday for our church pews.

We are getting bids for a section of our hall roof that needs repair. We are also getting bids for our parking lot to be resurfaced. Please continue to support our parish building fund.

On Monday evening I will be at the Chrism Mass with the priests and bishops of the archdiocese. We will be spending the day together in prayer, adoration and confession. I will be returning with our blessed oils for sacramental use in Anointing of the Sick, Baptism and Confirmation.

Our next communal Anointing of the Sick will be on Easter Wednesday at 12:30pm in the Senior Center in the hall.

Although the church office will be closed, if you need a priest near St. Jerome for Last Rites between Holy Thursday and Easter Monday call me at 424-543-4681. Do leave a message and your contact information. I will contact you within 24 hours.

The Rectory Office will be Closed:

From Holy Thursday, April 17th thru Monday, April 21st.

We wish everyone a blessed Easter!

Communal Anointing of the Sick
On Wednesday, April 23rd, at 12:30pm
In the Senior Center

This sacrament is for Catholics to help them deal with age or infirmity. The elderly who are weakened, even though no notable illness is present, may choose to receive it. Those who face surgery (put under anesthesia) may ask for it. Those who suffer from serious mental illness may also be anointed.

Catholic Relief Services
Operation Rice Bowl

During these past weeks we traveled and prayed for our brothers and sisters in Guatemala, Nigeria and Bangladesh.

God wants us to pay special attention to assisting people who are poor or vulnerable.

TODAY and Easter Sunday you can make your Rice bowl donation by cash or check payable to St. Jerome Church and place it in an envelope marked: Rice Bowl. Please do not bring loose coin. You can also make a donation at www. CSRicebowl.org

Mother's Day Cards and Novena

Beginning on Mother's Day we pray for mothers and grandmothers both living and departed at Holy Mass. Mother's Day Cards and Novena envelopes are available during at church and in the office.

Do return your Novena envelope to the rectory or place them in a Sunday collection so that your Mother or Grandmother's name will be placed on the Altar throughout our Mother's Day Novena next month.

The Senior Center is Open!

On MONDAYS AND WEDNESDAYS
From Noon to 4pm

Seniors are welcome to join us for cards, games and socializing. For those looking for something new to do, even if it's just to see some friendly faces, we can't wait to meet you.

If you have any questions, please contact

Joan Hoffman at 310-670-7801

"ONE CAN, YES I CAN!"

We have our parish's ongoing collection of food for those most in need. You may bring a can or package of non-perishable food to Mass and place it in baskets either in the vestibule or near an entrance. (Please no expired items or glass jars.) Tuna, peanut butter, and individual easy-open meals are much in demand. Donations go directly to the clients of Food Pantry, LAX (355 E. Beach Ave., Inglewood. 310-677-5597)

Condolences are extended to the family and friends of Great Way To Honor Our Lord and Savior!

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy Novena should begin on Good Friday in preparation for the Feast of Divine Mercy, which is celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. St. Faustina was told by Jesus that those who do this novena and who also "...go to confession, in preparation, and who receive communion on this day will obtain a complete remission of all sin and all punishment."

We begin on Good Friday. You are encouraged to join with us in church at 2pm each day of the novena in praying this powerful prayer. If you can't physically be with us, please to pray this novena seeking God's grace and mercy.

On Holy Saturday at 1pm in the hall we have a special film presentation on the Divine Mercy Chaplet. On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27th, we will have a special 2pm Mass to celebrate God's Mercy.

God so loved the world. We are grateful. We trust in you!

Bible Study Announcement: St. Jerome Parish Bible Study offers a 10-week small group study of the Acts of the Apostles beginning Easter Week. The first reading on Sundays of the Easter Season are taken from this book.

We offer two tracks for this study: 1) in-person in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9pm, beginning Tuesday, April 22; or, 2) on-line via Zoom on Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9pm, beginning Thursday, April 24.

No experience is necessary. All are welcome. The textbooks for the course will cost about $30 and will be available for purchase at the first Tuesday session. To participate, you can register for either track of this study by email. Email Steve Picard at sjpicard526@att.net with "SJ Bible study" in the subject line. Let him know which evening you would like to attend or have questions.

Are you homebound? Do you need communion brought to you?
Do you need transportation to see your doctor?
Do you need prayers?
