Easter Sunday Mass of the Day Liturgy of the Word

April's Special Collection
Building Fund & CTR Fulfillment
TODAY

From the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 10:34a, 37-43)
Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps118

(ANTIPHON)

This is the day the Lord has made;
Let us rejoice and be glad.

From the 1st letter to the Corinthians (1 Cor 5:6b-8)
Brothers and sisters: Do you not know that a little yeast leavens all the dough? Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. For our paschal lamb, Christ, has been sacrificed. Therefore, let us celebrate the feast, not with the old yeast, the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

From the Gospel according to John (Jn 20:1-9)
On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Fr. Bill's Musings

My name is Fr. Bill Bolton and I am the pastor of St. Jerome. During my 10 years at St. Jerome's I have been privileged to meet many wonderful people. I will mention the three living original parishioners still connected with St. Jerome: Rosemary Becker, Louise Meehan and Steve Hoffman. They have lived the history from the early days of mass at a nearby theater and our church property being a farm producing ham and eggs, through the abundant growth of the 1950's and 60's, to the softball field becoming what is now our St. Jerome Church.

An area that was once dominated by farms, then houses, seems quickly to be transforming into apartments and multi-story dwellings. We have people from every race and many languages from Africa, Asia, Europe, Australia, North and South America. The many changes are voiced in stories some of our seasoned parishioners have shared. United and centered on Christ, we too have stories to share... the gospel of the life we live each day.

I have appreciated the sense of welcoming and home I've found here at St. Jerome. People seem glad to see each other and whether Bruin or Trojan, saint or sinner, visitor to LA or those who think of St. Jerome's as their family: all are welcome. Whether we are celebrating Simbang Gabi in preparation for Christmas, singing with our African and Fil-Am Choirs, doing the Second Line Dance at Madri Gras, rejoicing at our New Years Party, feeding friends at our monthly soup kitchen, getting ready for the Craft-Faire or Carnival, visiting the homebound or those imprisoned, our doors and hearts are open to those God brings us to.

Thank you to all who have given us so many blessings through prayers, works and sacrifices to make St. Jerome's what it is today. Yet remember, Jesus isn't finished with us. Catholics don't retire. Our ministry and service may change but our mission as disciples continues as long as we have breath. Even in heaven we pray and intercede for those in the world. I pray that as His Body we will welcome the opportunities to help make Christ's Kingdom more present to those we meet.

Have a blessed Easter!

The Rectory Office is Closed:

Today and Monday, April 21st.

Our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
Now above the sky, He's King, Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Communion: I Am The Bread of Life by Sr. S. Toolan

1: I am the Bread of Life. You who come to Me shall not hunger; And who believe in Me shall not thirst. No one can come to Me Unless the Father beckons.

And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

2: The bread that I will give is My flesh for the life of the world. And if you eat of this Bread, You shall live forever, You shall live forever!

3: Unless you eat The Flesh of the Son of Man, And drink of His Blood, And drink of His Blood, You shall not have life within you.

4: I am the Resurrection. I am the Life. If you believe in Me, Even though you die, You shall live forever.

5: Yes, Lord, we believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who has come into the world.

Great Way To Honor Our Lord and Savior!

The Chaplet of Divine Mercy Novena should begin on Good Friday in preparation for the Feast of Divine Mercy, which is celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. St. Faustina was told by Jesus that those who do this novena and who also "...go to confession, in preparation, and who receive communion on this day will obtain a complete remission of all sin and all punishment."

We begin on Good Friday. You are encouraged to join with us in church at 2pm each day of the novena in praying this powerful prayer. During Easter Week confession will be available after the Chaplet until 3pm. If you can't physically be with us, please to pray this novena seeking God's grace and mercy.

On Divine Mercy Sunday, April 27th, we will have a special 2pm Mass to celebrate God's Mercy.

God so loved the world. We are grateful. We trust in you!
