30th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Liturgy of the Word

From the book of Sirach (Sir 35:12-14, 16-18)

The LORD is a God of justice, who knows no favorites. Though not unduly partial toward the weak, yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. The one who serves God willingly is heard; his petition reaches the heavens. The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; it does not rest till it reaches its goal, nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, judges justly and affirms the right, and the Lord will not delay.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 34

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Blessed be the Lord.

From the second letter to Timothy (2 Tm 4:6-8, 16-18)

Beloved: I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.

At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

World Mission Sunday: TODAY

Gospel Verse: God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, and entrusting to us the message of salvation.

From the Gospel according to Luke (Lk 18:9-14)

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity -- greedy, dishonest, adulterous -- or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Message From Pope Leo On World Mission Sunday

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

On World Mission Sunday every year, the whole Church prays, united, particularly for missionaries and the fruitfulness of their apostolic labors.

When I served as a missionary priest and then bishop in Peru, I saw first-hand how the faith, the prayer and the generosity shown on World Mission Sunday can transform entire communities.

I urge every Catholic parish in the world to take part in World Mission Sunday. Your prayers, your support will help spread the Gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories. This October, as we reflect together on our baptismal call to be "missionaries of hope among the peoples," let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus our Hope to the ends of the earth.

Thank you for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world. God bless you all!

Pope Leo XIV

The Church's chief missionary is asking each of us to support those proclaiming the Gospel in 1,124 mission territories across Asia, Africa, Oceania, the Pacific Islands, and Latin America.

How can you help? Pray for missionaries and the communities they serve. Give generously in the second collection today or online.

All Souls Novena Masses

During the entire month of November, a Mass will be offered each day in memory of our beloved dead. All Souls envelopes are in the church for you to list your departed loved ones to being included in this Catholic tradition.

Fr. Bill's Musings

It has been an amazing October. I loved the Rosary Crusade and am grateful for the lives that were changed through the Day of Renewal sponsored by our Charismatic Prayer Group. St. Jerome School's Run 4 Bucks was fun and Sparta enjoyed running with our choir members. Yet my highlight has to be the way our parish united as we gathered together for the funeral mass of longtime parishioner Arthur Howe.

Monsignor Norm and Fr. Peter concelebrated this mass with Arthur's family in Christ present. Please note that although Arthur has no blood kin, his family through the precious blood of Christ and the gift of baptism was well represented. The music and singing were beautiful. The assembly were welcoming, attentive and fully, actively participating. As Arthur was no stranger to church, so too his gathered brothers and sisters helped the Spirit of Christ be easily recognized. It was a foretaste of heaven. One grandmother mentioned that her grandson said he now understands better why his grandma loves church. Even some non-believers who came with relatives commented on the power and presence they experienced. This experience of church made God more believable for them.

I am grateful to our Angels, the St. Vincent de Paul Society and all who helped make the reception flavorful. Jesus and Arthur helped us share a wonderful day.

All Saints' Day is this Saturday. It is a great day to go to mass, but there is no obligation to attend mass.

November is Black Catholic History Month. This is why the Peter Claver Awards Program Brunch happens each November. The proceeds for this awards brunch go toward African American Vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Please join us as I am recognized for my love of Peter Claver and show your support for these men and woman answering God's call.

To celebrate Black Catholic History Month on Sunday, November 9th at the 10am Mass I promise you that the music will be amazing! Holy Name's Shining Faith Ensemble will be joining with members of our St. Jerome Adult Choirs. Jesus will be praised!

We have Coffee and Donuts TODAY

Following the 8am & 10am Mass

St. Vincent de Paul Bundle Sunday

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

BLACK Catholic HISTORY MONTH

Since 1990 November has been designated by the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus as Black Catholic History Month. St. Jerome will be honoring this special month with a Collaboration Mass.

On Sunday, November 9th at the 10am Mass the Holy Name's Shining Faith Ensemble will be joining our Saint Jerome Adult Choirs to sing together as we celebrate Black Catholic History Month.

It will be zoomed, but nothing compares with being at the Holy Eucharist live. The music chosen will reflect Black American Catholic impact on our culture and worship.

Reminder: These 6 African-Americans have lived lives worthy of imitation. To be recognized as saints they need miracles done through their intercession. If you or someone you love is in need of healing please consider letting one of these six saints in waiting assist them in their healing and recovery. After all, the saints of God are before His throne making intercession for his people. ASK THEM. Also, help others to get to know them. Let us add to Catholic History.
