From the book of Ecclesiastes (Ecc 1:2; 2:21-23)

Vanity of vanities, says Qoheleth, vanity of vanities! All things are vanity!

Here is one who has labored with wisdom and knowledge and skill, and yet to another who has not labored over it, he must leave property. This also is vanity and a great misfortune. For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun? All his days sorrow and grief are his occupation; even at night his mind is not at rest. This also is vanity.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 90

If today you hear his voice, Harden not your hearts.

From the letter to the Colossians (Col 3:1-5, 9-11)

Brothers and sisters: If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry. Stop lying to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed, for knowledge, in the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all and in all.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

From the Gospel according to Luke (Lk 12:13-21)

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!"' But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Fr. Bill's Musings

The older I get, the faster time seems to go. Teacher meetings for the upcoming school year are near. So much is happening: uniform sales, carnival preparation, carnival pre-sale tickets, packing for the pilgrimage, getting bulletins done in advance of the pilgrimage, wedding preps, worrying about pet care for Sparta (my dog) and Fuzzy Bob (my cat), working with children on guitar and ukulele, and of course, ministering the sacraments to the people of God and praying with and for the church and the world. Although I do not know what the future holds I am grateful it is in God's hands. Jesus, I trust in you. As Saint Teresa of Avila said "Nada te turbe, nada te espante, todo se pasa, Dios no se muda," which means "Let nothing disturb you, let nothing frighten you, everything passes, God does not change." He has this. Jesus, I trust in you.

Here is some parish music history you may have lived recounted by Laura Lockwood (on bulletin cover). Our focus is on Rita Courville (on bulletin cover) who we just learned has died. Rita started the Folk Group in the late 1960s, upon the request of the Sisters that taught at St. Jerome School. Rita was in the sixth grade at the time. While originally providing music at the school masses, Fr. Barnes, the newly ordained associate pastor in 1969 asked the group to sing at the 11am Sunday Mass. Rita continued to lead the group of high school/college age singers/musicians until 1983 under Monsignor Meckler who was pastor from 1973-1987. In the final years, the group consisted of: Rita on guitar, Ed Pausic on bass (RIP 2018), Ralph Amendola on mandolin and Laura Lockwood on flute. Rita is survived by her four children and her grandchildren. The 8am Mass hymns today were chosen to honor Rita Courville who passed away from cancer two years ago.

A note from Cathy Heppell: A huge THANK YOU to St. Jerome parishioners and Bible Study members for your food and financial donations to Food Pantry LAX during the past months. The customers are so grateful. They frequently say "God bless you" to the person handing them the food. And we are passing their sentiments along to you, St. Jerome donors!

8am Mass Music

We have chosen these hymns to honor our dear friend, Rita Courville, whom we just learned had passed away two years ago from pancreatic cancer. She was the leader of St. Jerome's folk group some 50 years ago. We pray that she is in the heavenly choir now and forever.

Gathering: Sing A New Song by Dan Schutte

Sing a new song unto the Lord; let your song be sung from mountains high. Sing a new song unto the Lord, singing alleluia.

1. Shout with gladness! Dance for joy! O come before the Lord. And play for God on glad tambourines, and let your trumpet sound.

2. Rise, O children, from your sleep; your Savior now has come. He has turned your sorrow to joy, and filled your soul with song.

Gifts: You Are Near by Dan Schutte

O Lord, I know you are near, standing always at my side. You guard me from the foe, and you lead me in ways everlasting.

1. Lord, you have searched my heart, and you know when I sit and when I stand. Your hand is upon me, protecting me from death, keeping me from harm.

2. Where can I run from your love? If I climb to the heavens you are there; if I fly to the sunrise or sail beyond the sea, still I'd find you there.

3. You know my heart and its ways, you who formed me before I was born, in the secret of darkness before I saw the sun, in my mother's womb.

4. Marvelous to me are your works; how profound are your thoughts, my Lord. Even if I could count them, they number as the stars, you would still be there.

Gathering: City Of God by Dan Schutte

1. Awake from your slumber! Arise from your sleep! A new day is dawning for all those who weep. The people in darkness have seen a great light. The Lord of our longing has conquered the night.
