Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Liturgy of the Word
8/28/2022

From the book of Sirach (Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29)

My child, conduct your affairs with humility, and you will be loved more than a giver of gifts. Humble yourself the more, the greater you are, and you will find favor with God.

What is too sublime for you, seek not, into things beyond your strength search not.

The mind of a sage appreciates proverbs, and an attentive ear is the joy of the wise. Water quenches a flaming fire, and alms atone for sins.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 68

(ANTIPHON)

God, in your goodness,

You have made a home for the poor.

From the letter to the Hebrews (Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a)

Brothers and sisters: You have not approached that which could be touched and a blazing fire and gloomy darkness and storm and a trumpet blast and a voice speaking words such that those who heard begged that no message be further addressed to them.

No, you have approached Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and countless angels in festal gathering, and the assembly of the firstborn enrolled in heaven, and God the judge of all, and the spirits of the just made perfect, and Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and the sprinkled blood that speaks more eloquently than that of Abel.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Take my yoke upon you, says the Lord, and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart.

From the Gospel according to Luke (Lk 14:1, 7-14)

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table. For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Then he said to the host who invited him, "When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment. Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Our next Parish Mission will be on September 11th.

Our featured preacher, Fr. Roy Pereira, S.J., is a professor at LMU and will be speaking at all the Sunday masses this day.

Fr. Bill's Musings

St. John Bosco was once asked, "What scripture best describes your group's work with people?" He paused and smiled, "The mother of Jesus was there." St. John Bosco chose a phrase that is used twice in the gospel according to John: at the Wedding Feast at Cana when Mary challenges her Son to begin revealing the power of God within Him and at the foot of the cross when Jesus gives us His mother as our mother.

John's journey to priesthood began with a dream at nine years of age: our Blessed Mother encouraging him to become a shepherd to help transform the wild beasts within people's nature into compassionate companions of Christ. And he was to do this not with force but rather with patience and loving-kindness. As a priest John came to believe that anyone who came to one of his youth centers, schools or parishes was brought there through the intercession of our Blessed Mother... challenging us to reveal the presence and power of God among us. It wasn't a coincidence, but rather a God-incidence.

I also believe that our Blessed Mother brings people to St. Jerome's so that we might help each other to better know Her Son and to learn to better love and serve Him as Good Christians and Responsible Citizens. This is a privilege, an opportunity and a responsibility. Let us strive together to live John's dream.

2022 Holiday Craft Faire

Safeguard the Children: Ways children go missing

According to the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children, there are a few significant ways that children go missing.

Nearly half of all families with autistic children have reported that their children wander and have gone missing. Other ways include abduction, either by a stranger or family members, and child sex trafficking. Parents need to be aware of warning signs and know how to take action.

For information, request a copy of the VIRTUS® article, "Ways Children Go Missing," at Iacatholics.org/did-you-know/.

The Creed and other Mass Parts

GLORY TO GOD: Mass of St. Anastasia

Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo! And on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen, Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

I am the Bread of Life broken for the world, I am the cup poured out for all. Those who believe in me will never die. I am the life of the world.

1: I am the food that the world cannot give. The food and drink for those who hunger and thirst. I am the true bread sent from heaven. You will have eternal life.

2: I am the Word from the beginning with God. I am the Word alive and with you now. I am the Word made flesh among you. You will have eternal life.

3: I am the truth, the new law given in love. I am the way; my words are spirit and life. I am mercy and forgiveness. You will have eternal life.

4: I am the sick, the frightened, and confused. I am the lost; needing shelter and food. I speak the word with power to heal the world. You will have eternal life.

5: I am your friend; I'll always walk with you. Don't be afraid, I gave my life for you. I will walk with you forever. You will have eternal life.

Communion 8am/5pm: NEW WINE by Brooke Ligertwood

1, 2: In the crushing, in the pressing You are making new wine. In the soil I now surrender, You are breaking new ground.

So I yield to You and to Your careful hand.

When I trust You I don't need to understand.

Make me Your vessel, make me an offering. Make me whatever You want me to be. I came here with nothing but all You have given me. Jesus, bring new wine out of me.

Bridge: Cause where there is new wine there is new power. There is new freedom and the kingdom is here. I lay down my old flames to carry Your new fire today.

Reflection: BREATHE by Marie Bennett

This is the air I breathe, this is the air I breathe: Your holy presence living in me. This is my daily bread, This is my daily bread: Your very Word spoken to me. And I, I'm desperate for you. And I, I'm lost without you.

For you are my God;
You alone are my joy.
Defend me, O Lord.

1. You give marvelous comrades to me: the faithful who dwell in Your land. Those who choose alien gods have chosen an alien band.

Gifts: THE SUMMONS by John L. Bell

1: Will you come and follow me if I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know and never be the same? Will you let my love be shown? Will you let my name be known, Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

2: Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same? Will you risk the hostile stare, Should your life attract or scare? Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

3: Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name? Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean and do such as this unseen, And admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

4: Will you love the you, you hide if I but call your name? Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same? Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, Through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

5: Lord your summons echoes true when you but call my name. Let me turn and follow you and never be the same. In Your company I'll go where Your love and foot-steps show. Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.
