From Fr. Bill

St. Joseph is one of my five favorite patrons and so I would like to share with you these excerpts from a Vatican News release of December 8, 2020:

To celebrate the anniversary the 150th anniversary of Blessed Pope Pius IX's declaration of St Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church, Pope Francis has proclaimed a special "Year of St Joseph," beginning on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception 2020 and extending to the same feast in 2021.

In the new Apostolic Letter entitled Patris corde ("With a Father's Heart"), Pope Francis presents why St. Joseph's example and intercession are so needed today. The Holy Father wrote Patris corde against the backdrop of the Covid-19 pandemic, which, he says, has helped us see more clearly the importance of "ordinary" people who, though far from the limelight, exercise patience and offer hope every day. In this, they resemble Saint Joseph, "the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence," who nonetheless played "an incomparable role in the history of salvation."

A BELOVED, TENDER, OBEDIENT FATHER

Saint Joseph, "concretely expressed his fatherhood" by making an offering of himself in love "a love placed at the service of the Messiah who was growing to maturity in his home," writes Pope Francis, quoting his predecessor St Paul VI. Joseph is a father in obedience to God: with his 'fiat' he protects Mary and Jesus and teaches his Son to "do the will of the Father."

WELCOMING THE WILL OF GOD

At the same time, Joseph is "an accepting Father," because he "accepted Mary unconditionally" — an important gesture even today, says Pope Francis, "in our world where psychological, verbal and physical violence towards women is so evident." But the Bridegroom of Mary is also the one who, trusting in the Lord, accepts in his life even the events that he does not understand, "setting aside his own ideas" and reconciling himself with his own history.

Joseph's spiritual path "is not one that explains, but accepts" — which does not mean that he is "resigned." Instead, he is "courageously and firmly proactive," because with "Holy Spirit's gift of fortitude," and full of hope, he is able "to accept life as it is, with all its contradictions, frustrations and disappointments." In practice, through St. Joseph, it is as if God were to repeat to us: "Do not be afraid!" because "faith gives meaning to every event, however happy or sad," and makes us aware that "God can make flowers spring up from stony ground."

A CREATIVELY COURAGEOUS FATHER

Patris corde highlights "the creative courage" of St. Joseph, which "emerges especially in the way we deal with difficulties." "The carpenter of Nazareth," explains the Pope, was able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting in divine providence." He had to deal with "the concrete problems" his Family faced, problems faced by other families in the world, and especially those of migrants. In this sense, St. Joseph is "the special patron of all those forced to leave their native lands because of war, hatred, persecution and poverty."

A FATHER WHO TEACHES THE VALUE OF WORK

"A carpenter who earned an honest living to provide for his family," St Joseph also teaches us "the value, the dignity and the joy of what it means to eat bread that is the fruit of one's own labor." This aspect of Joseph's character provides Pope Francis the opportunity to launch an appeal in favor of work, which has become "a burning social issue" even in countries with a certain level of well-being. "there is a renewed need to appreciate the importance of dignified work, of which Saint Joseph is an exemplary patron," the Pope writes.

Work, he says, "is a means of participating in the work of salvation, an opportunity to hasten the coming of the Kingdom, to develop our talents and abilities, and to put them at the service of society and fraternal communion." Those who work, he explains, "are cooperating with God himself, and in some way become creators of the world around us." Pope Francis encourages everyone "to rediscover the value, the importance and the necessity of work for bringing about a new 'normal' from which no one is excluded."

A FATHER CENTRED ON MARY AND JESUS

"Fathers are not born, but made," says Pope Francis. "A man does not become a father simply by bringing a child into the world, but by taking up the responsibility to care for that child." Unfortunately, in today's society, children "often seem orphans, lacking fathers" who are able to introduce them "to life and reality." Children, the Pope says, need fathers who will not try to dominate them, but instead raise them to be "capable of deciding for themselves, enjoying freedom and exploring new possibilities."

This is the sense in which St Joseph is described as a "most chaste" father, which is the opposite of dominating possessiveness. Joseph, says Pope Francis, "knew how to love with extraordinary freedom. He never made himself the centre of things. He did not think of himself, but focused instead on the lives of Mary and Jesus." Being a father, the Pope emphasizes, "has nothing to do with possession, but is rather a 'sign' pointing to a greater fatherhood": that of the "heavenly Father."

Happiness for Joseph involved a true gift of self: "In him, we never see frustration, but only trust," writes Pope Francis. "His patient silence was the prelude to concrete expressions of trust." Joseph stands out, therefore, as an exemplary figure for our time, in a world that "needs fathers," and not "tyrants"; a society that "rejects those who confuse authority with authoritarianism, service with servility, discussion with oppression, charity with a welfare mentality, power with destruction."

A DAILY PRAYER TO ST JOSEPH

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

St. Jerome Catholic Church:

Our mission is to SHARE God's message with all people, to OFFER support to those in need, to PROMOTE Christian values and commitment to the family, to FOSTER a loving and welcoming environment enriched by culture and age diversity, and to DEEPEN spiritual growth through sacraments, prayer and service.

St. Jerome Bible Study will begin a study of the Gospel According to Mark via Zoom on January 12, from 7:30pm to 9pm. The study will run for 11 weeks on Tuesday evenings. The commentary and study guide can be purchased from Little Rock Scripture Study.

Mark is the shortest of the four gospels, Mark is the earliest account of Jesus' life. Mark asks everyone to answer Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" and challenges believers in every generation to accept the reality of the cross.

The St. Jerome Angels Ministry

Two years ago our parish formed a ministry named "The St. Jerome Angels." The goal of this ministry is to reach out to our Seniors, as well as to our disabled parishioners: people who helped build our Church community and are now homebound.

We wanted to acknowledge them, while showing our appreciation for all they have done to build our Church.

We hope to increase this ministry in several ways:

- By encouraging parishioners to let our ministry know if there are other potential Angels whose names we do not have.
- By letting us know how to reach them.
- By providing assistance to the Angels for doctor appointments, church services, reception of communion and for other needs they might have.
- By involving our youth in our ministry.
- By praying for God's blessing on those beautiful people.
- By asking yourself if you might join us in this ministry.

Please send all names, locations, telephone numbers, and questions to:

Kathy Fitzpatrick
310 703-2519

Email: thekfitzpatrick@gmail.com

Remember: These "Angels" have been the backbone of St. Jerome Church. Let's show them how much we admire, love and appreciate them!

Los Angeles Religious Education Congress

"Proclaim the Promise!"

February 18-21, 2021

The Religious Education of Congress began as an Institute in 1956 which was first held at Mount Carmel High School in Los Angeles. There were some 500 teachers and catechist in attendance for that two day conference. Since 1970, we have offered a four day event at the Anaheim Convention Center. Our gathering last year brought together 30,000.00 .

Now that our upcoming event will be virtual three day event, which you can attend right from home or work!

For a registration fee of $35, you experience:

1. Keynote Presenters
2. Dynamic Workshops
3. Entertainment
4. Intercultural Prayer Experiences
5. Access to the Youth Track

Our Youth Track is on Friday and Saturday LIVE from 2:30-5pm. It will be an interactive experience with: Social Media Challenges, Witness Talks, Keynote Speakers, Skits, Prayer Experiences and music featuring Our Youth Choir!

Register at www.RECongress.org

"Parish Staff Sunday"

Our office staff is available every Sunday in the Garden Area which is located behind the rectory. You are welcome to stop by to ask question regarding baptisms, parish registration, or about having a mass said for your special intention. You can also purchase Candles for $5.00 each.

We hope this makes our ministry of service more accessible to you and your family.

Our 2021 BREAKING BREAD BOOK which we use in church is now for sale. It includes all Sunday readings, all weekday responses and our most commonly used Catholic Hymns. The price is $10 dollars!. See Parish staff to get a copy for the upcoming church year.

These opportunities continue!

Drive-in-Adoration: The Blessed Sacrament is exposed from 8am to 3:15pm Monday through Saturday.

Our Friday Evening Prayer Group meets at 7pm. This charismatic group continues to pray for us and invites all to be open to the Spirit of Jesus allowing themselves to be refreshed and renewed.

The Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

1/24/2021

COME AND FOLLOW ME – James Drollinger

(REFRAIN)

Come and follow me. Come and follow me.
Deny yourself, take up your cross.
Come and follow me.

1. Now is the time of fulfillment, now, the acceptable time.
Repent of your sins; believe in the gospel.
The Kingdom of God is at hand.
2. Where two or three are gathered,
there is Christ in their midst.
Love one another, show compassion:
This is the great command.

From the book of Jonah

(Jonah 3:1-5, 10)

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying: "Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you." So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding. Now Nineveh was an enormously large city; it took three days to go through it. Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, "Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed," when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.

When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM—Ps25 – Drollinger/Soper

(ANTIPHON)

Teach me your ways, teach me your ways,
Teach me your ways, O Lord.

1. Your ways, O Lord, make known to me;
teach me your paths.

Guide me in your truth, for you are my God,
and for you I will wait. R/

2. Good and upright is the Lord; he shows us the way.
He guides the meek to justice,
he teaches the humble to follow his ways. R/
3. Your way, O Lord, is kindness to those who are true.
Your friendship is with those who love you;
you reveal to them your Word. R/

Verses by Scott Soper - © 1988, OCP. All rights reserved. Reprinted with permission under ONE LICENSE # A-735601. Antiphon ©2017 by James Drollinger. All rights reserved.

From the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians (1 Cor 7:29-31)

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out. From now on, let those having wives act as not having them, those weeping as not weeping, those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning, those using the world as not using it fully. For the world in its present form is passing away.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse

The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the Gospel.

From the Gospel according to Mark

(Mk 1:14-20)

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel."

As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

MANY AND GREAT – Ricky Manalo

1. Many and great are bearers of the Word:
the Christ speaks; the heart seeks.
Gathered as one, we listen to the Word and share the meal of new birth.

(Refrain)

The wheat grows from springtime to fall;
the wine flows; in Christ we recall the sharing of our lives with one and all.

2. Many and great are the seeds upon the field:
the hand sows; the seeds grow.
Take now and eat the covenant fulfilled
the bread of promise and life.
3. Many and great are voices of despair:
the rain falls; the voice calls.
Take now and drink the wine of hope and care;
our cup of blessings we share.
4. Many and great are pebbles in the sand:
the sun glows; the wind blows.
Take now and spread the Word to ev'ry land,
the Word of goodness and hope.

BREAD OF LIFE – Bernadette Farrell

(Refrain)

Bread of life, hope of the world,
Jesus Christ, our brother:
feed us now, give us life,
lead us to one another.

1. As we proclaim your death, as we recall your life we remember your promise to return again.
2. The bread we break and share was scattered once as grain:
just as now it is gathered, make your people one.
3. We eat this living bread, we drink this saving cup:
sign of hope in our broken world, source of lasting love.
4. Hold us in unity, in love for all to see;
that the world may believe in you, God of all who live.
5. You are the bread of peace, you are the wine of joy, broken now for your people, poured in endless love.

THE LORD IS MY LIGHT – Christopher Walker

1. The Lord is my light, my help, my salvation.
Why should I fear? With God I fear no one.
God protects me all my life.
With the Lord what should I dread?

The Lord is my light, the Lord is my help,
the Lord is my salvation.

2. There is one thing I ask, of the Lord that I long for:
All of my days with god to be dwelling.
Gazing with awe at the beauty of God,
And in wonder look on God's house.
3. I know I will live to see the lord's goodness;
Now, in this life, I'm sure I will see it.
Trust in the lord, be strong and be brave;
Wait in hope for God, our sal vation.

WE BELONG TO YOU – Trevor & Victoria Thomson

(Refrain)

We belong to you, O Lord of our longing,
We belong to you.
In our daily living, dying and rising
We belong to you.

1. In the waters of your mercy,
When the old becomes the new,
Souls united in the myst'ry:
We belong to you.
2. Filled with gifts and filled with goodness, Spirit breathing life into
All who seek to find their purpose:
We belong to you.
3. When we share the bread you've broken,
With the many and the few,
We are blessed and we are broken;
We belong to you.
4. We are called to share your word, Lord,
In all we say and all we do.
As our journey moves us onward,
We belong to you.

Parking-Lot Etiquette Reminders

1. If you plan to park and move closer to the altar, please park your car further away so that others might be able to use your "nearer the altar parking spot" for mass. The parking spots in front of the outside chapel marked with cones are only for vehicles that have a driver and/or passenger inside zooming the mass.
2. Those leaving their cars to sit/stand outside in any of the property/parking lot area should park on the school side parking lot or at the Eastern side of the church lot closest to La Tijera. (This arrangement allows those who do not wish to leave their vehicles to attend mass AND helps the priest and ministers during communion and offertory since they spend time approaching vehicles only to discover there is no one in the car.)
3. It is not appropriate to try go from car to car seeking a seat. If we notice anyone going from vehicle to vehicle seeking admittance, they will be asked to leave as car-hoppers put both beggar and host at risk
4. Know that if you invite someone into your car, even when wearing masks, within less than 15 minutes you will be sharing both air and germs with each other.
