From the book of the prophet Isaiah (Is 43:16-21)

Thus says the LORD, who opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters, who leads out chariots and horsemen, a powerful army, till they lie prostrate together, never to rise, snuffed out and quenched like a wick. Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new! Now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? In the desert I make a way, in the wasteland, rivers. Wild beasts honor me, jackals and ostriches, for I put water in the desert and rivers in the wasteland for my chosen people to drink, the people whom I formed for myself, that they might announce my praise.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM – Psalm 51 by Dominic MacAller
Lord, be merciful, be merciful, for we have sinned.

From the letter to the Philippians (Phil 3:8-14)

Brothers and sisters: I consider everything as a loss because of the supreme good of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have accepted the loss of all things and I consider them so much rubbish, that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having any righteousness of my own based on the law but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God, depending on faith to know him and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by being conformed to his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. It is not that I have already taken hold of it or have already attained perfect maturity, but I continue my pursuit in hope that I may possess it, since I have indeed been taken possession of by Christ Jesus. Brothers and sisters, I for my part do not consider myself to have taken possession. Just one thing: forgetting what lies behind but straining forward to what lies ahead, I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God's upward calling, in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: Even now, says the Lord, return to me with your whole heart; for I am gracious and merciful.

From the Gospel of John (Jn 8:1-11)

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. But early in the morning he arrived again in the temple area, and all the people started coming to him, and he sat down and taught them. Then the scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle. They said to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. Now in the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" They said this to test him, so that they could have some charge to bring against him.

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." Again he bent down and wrote on the ground. And in response, they went away one by one, beginning with the elders. So he was left alone with the woman before him. Then Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She replied, "No one, sir." Then Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go, and from now on do not sin any more."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Easter Triduum

We call these three days individually Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday. I have four days listed here as we tend to count days from getting up in the morning to getting up the next morning (or from midnight to midnight). The Jewish people measured days from sunset to sunset. You may recall they went to break the legs of those crucified "for the Sabbath day of that week was a solemn one." As the Sabbath begins at sunset they needed the crucified dead and buried while the Jews were still allowed to do work.

Day one begins at Sunset... and this day is FULL. It begins with the Last Supper. "Take and eat, this is my body." "Take and drink, this is my blood." After this Passover meal they go to spend the night in the Mount of Olives. Jesus stays up late praying. Jesus gets arrested and taken before the Sanhedrin. By dawn he is brought before Pilate, is sent to King Herod who happens to be in town, and gets sent back to Pilate. The crowd chooses Barabbas rather than Jesus. We then have the parade of those to be crucified to Golgotha (the place of the skulls) and Jesus is nailed to the cross in the early afternoon. Jesus dies on the cross and is hurriedly buried in the twilight... as it is almost the beginning of the Sabbath. Please note, from a Jewish perspective, the Last Supper and Jesus' Passion and death occur on the same day. They are not two, but components of one continuous event.

Day two begins at Sunset... and this is a day of REST. Just as God in chapter one of the book of Genesis rests on the Sabbath Day of creation week, so God the Father and His Son rest in preparation for the new creation.

Day three begins at Sunset... and this day radiates with new life. We don't know the exact minute Jesus is raised, but we know that by sunrise the Son is already risen and gone before the women arrive at the tomb at dawn. Jesus is raised on the third day... the first day of our new creation and covenant.

Beginning with the Lord's Supper we as church enter into the mystery... the event... which transcends time and space. It brings forgiveness, mercy, new life and hope to all who are willing to accept Jesus' invitation. Join us for the Easter Triduum which begins Thursday, April 14th at 6pm.

PLEASE fill in our parish census card and ensure we have your current contact information. Thank you.
