A reading from the book of Exodus (Ex 20:1-17)

In those days, God delivered all these commandments: "I, the LORD, am your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery. You shall not have other gods besides me. You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything in the sky above or on the earth below or in the waters beneath the earth; you shall not bow down before them or worship them. For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, inflicting punishment for their fathers' wickedness on the children of those who hate me, down to the third and fourth generation; but bestowing mercy down to the thousandth generation on the children of those who love me and keep my commandments. You shall not take the name of the LORD, your God, in vain. For the LORD will not leave unpunished the one who takes his name in vain. Remember to keep holy the sabbath day. Six days you may labor and do all your work, but the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD, your God. No work may be done then either by you, or your son or daughter, or your male or female slave, or your beast, or by the alien who lives with you. In six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and all that is in them; but on the seventh day he rested. That is why the LORD has blessed the sabbath day and made it holy. Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you. You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor's house. You shall not covet your neighbor's wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him."

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL: Ps 51

Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

From the 1st letter to the Corinthians (1 Cor 1:22-25)
Brothers and sisters: Jews demand signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we proclaim Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to those who are called, Jews and Greeks alike, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Verse: God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might have eternal life.

From the Gospel according to John (Jn 2:13-25)
Since the Passover of the Jews was near, Jesus went up to Jerusalem. He found in the temple area those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, as well as the money changers seated there. He made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, "Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace." His disciples recalled the words of Scripture, Zeal for your house will consume me. At this the Jews answered and said to him, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The Jews said, "This temple has been under construction for forty-six years, and you will raise it up in three days?" But he was speaking about the temple of his body. Therefore, when he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they came to believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. While he was in Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, many began to believe in his name when they saw the signs he was doing. But Jesus would not trust himself to them because he knew them all, and did not need anyone to testify about human nature. He himself understood it well.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Stations of the Cross at St. Jerome are available outside to walk and pray.

Communal Stations of the Cross Are Friday evenings at 7pm

Confession is available on Friday from 6:30pm to 7:30pm

Confession is also available on Saturday afternoons 1:30 to 2:30

Penance Service

We invite you to come to our parish Penance Service on March 20th at 7pm

If it has been months or years since you last received this sacrament, pray for the grace of the Holy Spirit to make a good confession before Easter.

FAST AND ABSTINENCE

As Friday was the day of Jesus' suffering and death, the Church asks Catholics to ABSTAIN FROM EATING MEAT ON ALL THE FRIDAYS OF LENT. ABSTINANCE forbids the eating of meat for those who are of age of 14 years and older.

Fr. Bill's Musings

If you can't think of something to do during this season of grace the scriptures of the first week of Lent give us direction. Monday asked us to avoid sin and to be a blessing to others. (Act of kindness each day?) Tuesday reminded us to pray like Jesus. (Daily prayer is essential.) Wednesday focused on our need to repent and believe. Things that keep us away from Jesus need to be lessened or replaced. (Do I love it more than Jesus?) Thursday suggested that in our prayer we should ask for those things which will help us grow in grace and the Holy Spirit. (The Father gives us what we need.) Friday reminded us to be reconcilers with our brothers and sisters who have something against us. (Try reaching out, maybe time has helped heal?) Saturday challenges us to love our enemies and to pray for those who persecute us. (On the cross He set the example.) When we are not working on the garden of our soul, the weeds are sinking their roots deeper.

TODAY after the 8am & 10am masses

Operation Rice Bowl

This week we'll pray for families in El Salvador, who learned new ways to combat hunger. Our catholic faith teaches us how important it is to live in community for our growth and fulfillment. We believe that all people should participate in society, seeking the well-being of all, especially those in need.

IN THESE DAYS OF LENTEN JOURNEY by Ricky Manalo

In these days of Lenten journey we have seen and we have heard the call to sow justice in the lives of those we serve.

1: We reach out to those who are homeless, to those who live without warmth. In the coolness of evening we'll shelter their dreams; we will clothe them in mercy and peace.

2: We open our eyes to the hungry, and see the faces of Christ. As we nourish all people who hunger for food, may their faith in our God be renewed.

3: We open our ears to the weary and hear the cry of the poor. To the voices that echo the song of despair, we will show our compassion and care.

Julia Greeley
Denver's Angel of Charity

Julia was born into slavery, at Hannibal, Missouri, sometime between 1833 and 1848. While she was still a young child, a cruel slavemaster, in the course of beating her mother, caught Julia's right eye with his whip and destroyed it.

Freed by Missouri's Emancipation Act in 1865, Julia subsequently earned her keep by serving white families in Missouri, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico—though mostly in the Denver area. Whatever she did not need for herself, Julia spent assisting poor families in her neighborhood. When her own resources were inadequate, she begged for food, fuel and clothing for the needy. One writer later called her a "one-person St. Vincent de Paul Society." To avoid embarrassing the people she helped, Julia did most of her charitable work under cover of night through dark alleys.

Julia entered the Catholic Church at Sacred Heart Parish in Denver in 1880, and was an outstanding supporter of all that the parish had to offer. The Jesuits who ran the parish considered her the most enthusiastic promoter of devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus they had ever seen. Every month she visited on foot every fire station in Denver and delivered literature of the Sacred Heart League to the firemen, Catholics and non-Catholics alike.

A daily communicant, Julia had a rich devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and the Blessed Virgin and continued her prayers while working and moving about. She joined the Secular Franciscan Order in 1901 and was active in it till her death in 1918.

As she lived in a boarding house, Julia's body was laid out in church, and immediately many hundreds of people began filing past her coffin to pay their grateful respect. She was buried in Mt. Olivet Cemetery and to the present day many people have been asking that her cause be considered for canonization, a request which was finally granted in the Fall of 2016.

As part of the Cause for Canonization, Julia's mortal remains were transferred to Denver's Cathedral Basilica of the Immaculate Conception on June 7, 2017.

You may wish to use the following prayer:

Heavenly Father, your servant Julia Greeley dedicated her life to honoring the Sacred Heart of your Son and to the humble service of the poor. Grant to me a generous heart like your Son's, and if it be in accordance with your holy will, please grant this favor I now ask through Julia's intercession (insert intention)...I pray this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
